Alliant National Title Insurance Company Adds Florida Counsel and Vice President

Education, legal expertise broadens Alliant National's Florida presence

LONGMONT—Alliant National Title Insurance Company, a unique title insurance underwriter that partners with Independent Agents to improve their competitive position in the marketplace, is pleased to announce that W. Jeffrey Stein, Esq. has joined the company as Florida Counsel and Vice President, effective November 15, 2010. Stein will manage legal issues throughout the country on behalf of Alliant National, and is also responsible for Alliant National's Independent Agent needs that include: Florida state underwriting; Independent Agent education programs; and the promotion of the betterment of the title insurance industry.

Stein brings over twelve years experience serving title insurance underwriters within Florida and beyond, including creating and running claims departments for Florida and the Caribbean, supervising claims attorneys for the southeast United States, working as an underwriter, and creating and presenting educational seminars. He also brings eighteen years experience in private practice as a title agent and abstract examiner.

“Jeff Stein is a well-seasoned attorney with experience across the U.S.,” says David Ginger, Alliant National President. “He brings a deep and rich understanding of not just the legal ramifications inherent to the title insurance industry, but of the critical elements necessary to ensure an Independent title insurance agent's success. Jeff is a proven expert and an asset to our team."

"The Alliant National mission to provide the very best products and services for their Independent Agents and to those Agents' clientele is exciting and revolutionary," says Stein. "It will be a great honor and a rewarding effort to work alongside Alliant National's management team and Independent Agent family."

Alliant National's mission is to protect property owners' investment by providing secure title insurance delivered by the finest Independent Agents available. Alliant National provides a partnership environment with its agents that improves the accuracy, efficiency and timeliness of its products, while improving the knowledge base of its agents, and offering the best title products and services possible.
